Publisher's Introduction

Probably the largest influential source of professional people's emails – all are verified opt-in email techies. This service is unique from Frankform, sending your emails at a rate of 5000 per second via which is the dedicated internet ISP that continually processes all the Frankform email broadcasts 24 hours a day, seven days a week, thus ensuring despatch directly into the backbone of the internet. Your emails are delivered successfully across the universe of ISPs which are electronically staggered to prevent potential overloads. Rest assured this is one of the most successful services available in the world of electronic mail.

With over 2000 selections now available for all the Frankform emails you will always be spoilt for choice, from our business to business emails to our professionals people's email ensuring your message will reach the right person. For instant appraisal of the SIC selections take out a few moments to call at our website @ www.frankform.com where after registering you can browse all the current options and countries or simply email sales @ frankform.com for a personal report of your immediate requirement.

PRIVACY NOTICE – Every email broadcast carries an unsubscribe button, which upon hitting allows the sender to be suppressed from further email publications and campaigns.

Opt-In/Opt-Out – every email at Frankform has been qualified as opt-in. It is the Frankform tradition to pioneer the freedom of mail throughout the world and we are determined that every name we process has the opportunity to state their preference and we only retain those who wish to opt-in and have a wish to receive valuable information to assist them both at work or leisure, hence the exact recorded interests of all concerned.

Work Type – the now famous work types by Frankform established as long ago as 1983 have not been forgotten and your emails come with a choice of up to 100 job titles. Now you are talking to the right person so expect some splendid results.

Opt-Out – We at Frankform believe this classification to be the best thing for this industry as it identifies those individuals with whom mailers would not want to waste time and money. Our policy is to question every individual with respect to mail, telephone, fax and email and as a policy we remove an opt-out request from all the communication methods. They are then housed in the Frankform suppression file where they are prevented from coming back into the active opt-in file for all time. The DMA opt-out file is also used to suppress all the communication addresses at Frankform.

Proactive and reactive responders are what we are all looking for and to be successful in this world. This is an essential fundament. The subscribers to the Frankform datafile in the most part fall into this category and we trust you will find success in using these files for your campaigns whichever you may decide on.
